freely being

real images for radiant souls

WWW.ANNAROWENA.COM

LET'S be who WE ARE, freely.

No two souls are the same so let's lose all inhibitions and radiate who we really are.

Taking photos can be intimidating, but I promise my sessions are laid back and super chill, because this session isn't about getting "the shot" it's about capturing you in your truest self.

Too often photo sessions end up being about picking the "ideal" outfit and stressing about looking "perfect" instead of the of being who we are so freely that we can't help but let it bubble up from our soul.

So let's cast off the boxes to be checked and instead enjoy the radiant, unique, one of a kind, being that you are.

All you gotta' do is show up and be yourself, freely.

a bit about anna

I'm a lover of life's simple things. Warm coffee from a favorite mug, a cozy sweater, a good smelling candle, the sound of rain outside my window, sharing a glass of wine with my favorite people.

These simple things make me, ME. And that's really what defines who we are right? The simple things. That's what I'm all about, capturing YOUR simple things. Because the truest expression of ourselves isn't a made up, fake version we put on, but the little stuff that truly reflects our soul.
